

Privacy Policy

This policy applies to all information collected in the TapeLister app for Mac.

Information we collect

TapeLister does not collect, share or store personally identifiable information.

Audio files and related metadata added to TapeLister are stored within the app and in its ".tape" file format that can be saved to a computer's file system.

TapeLister contains no network connection capability, and contains no functionality to send audio files or related metadata outside the app without the user's knowledge.

Ads and analytics

TapeLister does not contain adverts. TapeLister does not collect analytics data.

California Online Privacy Protection Act Compliance

We comply with the California Online Privacy Protection Act. We therefore will not distribute your personal information to outside parties without your consent.

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act Compliance

We never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

Information for European Union Customers

All data added to TapeLister will stay within the app, and will not be transferred outside of the EU.

International Transfers of Information

All data added to TapeLister will stay within the app, and will not be transferred internationally.

Your Consent

By using TapeLister, you consent to this privacy policy.
